

Job Level	Athletic Trainer	Professional Level II
Oversight Received	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Provide clinical evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries and illnesses under the general supervision of the designated team physician and in accordance with standards of the NATABOC and state regulatory board * Assist with the supervision and oversight of athletic training graduate students and work study employees. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Limited supervision through review of work product • Periodic monitoring of work
Problem Solving	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Provide prevention and care of athletic related injuries for all sports programs * Maintain accurate and up-to-date written treatment and injury records in accordance with established medical documentation standards * Assist in the development and integration of sports medicine policies and procedures as they relate to the operation of athletic training services, including EAP's and game day EMS * Be knowledgeable of and fully comply with all appropriate rules and regulations of Colorado State University, the MW Conference and the NCAA 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applies concepts to resolve a variety of problems • Discretion to determine a course of action with review
Interaction/ Communication	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Provide regular communication with coaching staff regarding injury and participation status of student-athletes * Assist with coordination and oversight of athletic training coverage for institutional summer camps * Assist with recruitment, hiring and oversight of athletic training educational interns, graduate students and work-study students 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communicates to a broad audience that may be outside of occupational discipline
University Impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Responsible for the day-to-day oversight of athletic training/sports medicine services for an NCAA Div. I intercollegiate athletics program competing as a member of the Mountain West Conference with specific sport(s) coverage as determined by Associate Athletic Director for Sports Performance. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working knowledge of University policies and systems • Impact is on work team or department
Typical Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Bachelor's degree required, preferably in health and exercise science, sports medicine, kinesiology, anatomy or related field * Current NATA certification required * Minimum of three years of previous experience as a certified athletic trainer required, preferably in an intercollegiate sports medicine or athletic training program at the NCAA Division I level 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bachelor's degree