

Job Level	Extension Agent, Family and Consumer Sciences, Weld County	Professional Level III
Oversight Received	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Support to family and consumer sciences programs in Weld County including, but not limited to, food safety and preservation; human, family, and community development; family financial stability; nutrition, health, and wellness as they relate to individuals, families and communities. * This person works under the guidance and supervision of the Weld County Extension Director. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Works independently ▪ May serve as a resource for other professionals
Problem Solving	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * This position will manage a program budget of approximately $5,000. * This position will generate and manage extramural funding associated with their programming. * Develop, market, deliver and evaluate non-credit educational family and consumer sciences programming in response to locally identified needs in Weld County. * Provide leadership for an actively engaged family and consumer science program in Weld County 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Defines and solves advanced problems with non-standard solutions
Interaction/ Communication	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Collaborate with other Weld County and Extension staff to incorporate family and consumer science, community engagement and other expertise into community program efforts. * Actively participate in one or more Extension work teams to provide expertise for program and information development, delivery and evaluation efforts statewide. * Seek out and develop local relationships, identify priority programming opportunities and develop, deliver, facilitate, evaluate and report outcomes to stakeholders. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Communication of complex concepts as a regular and primary requirement
University Impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Develop and partner in opportunities to generate external funding sources (grants, contracts, gifts, sponsorships, user fees, etc.) to help support programming efforts. * Develop working relationships and coordinate resources, programming and research with other Colorado State University and Extension personnel/staff, Weld County 4-H, community leaders, Weld County government, agencies, and institutions to enhance program development, delivery, evaluation and reporting. * Work with advisory committees, community leaders, area agencies and non-profits to continually assess conditions and develop effective plans of work providing measurable program outcomes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Potential impact is across multiple departments or even University-wide
Typical Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Completed master's degree. Degree must be completed before beginning the position. Minimum of one degree conferred in family and consumer science, food science and nutrition, human development, community health, family financial management, food safety, public health, or a closely related field. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Bachelor's degree or advanced degree