CSU FAMILI

Family and Medical Leave Insurance Program
Jan. 1, 2024

Presented by: Teri Suhr, Chief Total Rewards Officer
Jackie Swaro, Benefits Supervisor
What is FAMLI?
CSU’s Private Family and Medical Leave Insurance Program

• Approved by Colorado voters in 2020 to create employee paid leave. Employees who work and live in Colorado, are eligible

• FAMLI allows an employer to create a private self-funded plan and the State of Colorado approved CSU’s FAMLI plan

• Premiums began in January 2023 and leave program benefits begin in January 2024
  ○ 0.45% employee / 0.45% employer = 0.9% (subject to change under the law in 2025; statutorily capped at 1.2%)
  ○ Premium calculation moves to gross pay in 2024 from the state unemployment insurance calculation used in 2023

• Human Resources will streamline administration
  ■ Benefits team facilitates claim eligibility
  ■ HR department liaison coordinates FML and leave entries
  ■ Payroll processes income replacement and W-2 reporting
What frequency am I allowed to use CSU's FAMLI leave?

An employee may use continuous leave, reduced work schedule, or intermittent leave for all FAMLI qualifying reasons including care and bonding of a child.

Employees are allowed 12 weeks of partial CSU FAMLI wage replacement on a rolling forward calendar year for qualifying eligible reasons.

This means that an employee is eligible for 12 weeks from the first date they use leave, 12 months later. Be aware that State Classified staff use the rolling backward tracking method for FML, so the tracking for FAMLI will differ.
Can I apply for CSU FAMLII if I am not in a paid employment status?

Employees with an employment frequency of less than 12 months, may apply for CSU FAMLII during the period of their paid contract status. This applies to 9-month faculty and staff (including 9-month contracts paid over 12 months).

9-month employees are not eligible to begin CSU FAMLII benefits until they are in a “paid status”. In addition, employees on a suspended assignment and ineligible for pay are not active employment categories.
Benefit Calculations

CSU’s Private Family and Medical Leave Insurance Program

How will the FAMLI benefit be calculated?

- Benefits are calculated on a sliding scale up to a weekly maximum benefit of $1,100 (subject to index annually)

- Weekly benefit is 90% of an employee’s average weekly wage, if it is equal to or less than 50% of the state’s average weekly wage ($1,421.16). Then, for any portion of the employee’s wage greater than 50% of the state’s average weekly wage the calculation is 50% of the remaining average weekly wage.

- The monetary calculation uses: The FAMLI base period of the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the employee’s benefit year in relation to the average weekly wage for the State’s average weekly wage of $1,421.16 (subject to change annually).

What deductions are applicable to CSU’s FAMLI income?

By state statute, FAMLI payments are exempt from state taxation and retirement plan contributions, whether mandatory plans or voluntary plans, however, federal and Medicare tax apply.

Any Parental leave or leave accruals used to “top off” FAMLI are subject to normal taxation deductions from wages and will be subject to normal retirement contributions and insurance premium payments.

Keep this in mind if you are actively enrolled in a voluntary retirement plan as you may wish to lower your contributions during periods of FAMLI leave.
When can I expect to be paid by the CSU FAMLI plan?

As soon as the claim and all required supporting documentation are considered complete by the Human Resources benefits team, you can expect to receive the CSU FAMLI wage replacement every two weeks, which is based on the date the claim is complete in conjunction with your dates of FAMLI leave.

Any leave accruals or other university leave programs to “top off” FAMLI income will be paid in the frequency of your normal payroll cycle, either bi-weekly or monthly, based upon your employment category.
Do CSU FAMLi benefits stop when my employment ends?

You must be an active employee in paid status to apply for CSU’s FAMLi program.

If you are on a reduced work schedule or intermittent leave, FAMLi leave ends upon termination or the end of the contract period and a new application can be submitted upon rehire or the beginning of the next contract period.

Employees on continuous FAMLi leave are eligible through the duration of the approved leave.
1. Employees should not apply through the State of Colorado.

2. CSU FAMLI leave claims must be applied for within 30 days of the first date of absence.

3. FAMLI application is available on the CSU FAMLI website.

4. FAMLI must be used before other leave program options and other programs for eligible employees can be used to “top-off” FAMLI partial income replacement.

5. FAMLI is paid within two weeks after the claim is properly filed and every two weeks thereafter for the duration of the approved leave.

Accrued leave other benefit programs being used to “top off” FAMLI will be paid through the normal payroll process.
Am I eligible for CSU FAMILI in 2024 if I became a new parent in 2023?

Yes, new parents are eligible to apply for CSU FAMILI leave to bond with a new child anytime within the first 12 months after a birth, adoption, or foster care placement. New parents will have some weeks of eligibility in 2024 depending upon the date they welcomed a child in 2023 even if other CSU leave programs or FML were used. This is a transition rule built into the FAMILI statute.

For example, if an employee became a new parent on February 1, 2023, they could apply for CSU FAMILI leave beginning January 1 – 31, 2024, at which time the 12 month requirement would end.

Any use of other CSU leave programs in 2023 do not duplicate in 2024 for “topping off” FAMILI partial income replacement. Any leave accruals would be eligible to “top off” FAMILI if you consent to their use when applying.
Do I have to use FAMLI for holidays or university breaks?

Employees on continuous FAMLI leave will receive income replacement from the CSU FAMLI program. The fact that a holiday or break may occur within the week taken as FAMLI has no effect; the week is counted as a week of FAMLI leave. This assumes the employee began leave during a period of work and the leave begins before the holiday or university break.

If an employee is using FAMLI leave in increments of less than one week, the holiday or break will not count against the employee’s FAMLI entitlement—and the employee will not receive wage replacement benefits from FAMLI. The normal leave code would be used for holidays if they would normally receive holiday pay and not be working.
Other Leave Programs

CSU’s FAMLí runs concurrently with other leave programs and FML based upon the eligibility of the employee.

FML
Employees may be eligible for FML, a federal benefit that provides job protection for 12 weeks per rolling 12 months.

FML runs concurrently with CSU’s FAMLí when the qualifying reason is allowed under FML to the extent FML is available.

FML forms are separate from FAMLí.

PARENTAL LEAVE
The university's parental leave program for eligible employees runs concurrently with CSU’s FAMLí and FML.

Parental leave is used automatically to “top off” the partial FAMLí income replacement and applied for on the CSU FAMLí application (for Colorado employees).

SHORT TERM DISABILITY
The short term disability program for eligible employees runs concurrently with CSU’s FAMLí and FML to the extent available (for Colorado employees).

A waiting period where leave accruals are required to be used first applies to coordinate with CSU’s FAMLí.

LEAVE ACCRUALS
Employees who accrue leave time may choose to utilize it to “top off” the partial CSU FAMLí income replacement.

Employees will request through the CSU FAMLí application process.

Dear Amy,

We have received a FAMLI application from Cam T Ram, #1870 and the claim has been approved for their qualifying FAMLI reason. They are approved for continuous leave for the duration of: January 8 - February 25, 2024. Please make entries into TimeClock Plus (TCP) and Oracle as soon as possible, but no later than two business days from the date of this notice.

Entries are required so FAMLI payments can be made by Human Resources. In Oracle, use the "LWOP/FAMLI Leave" assignment change reason, and the "Creator Comments" to note the complete dates, hours and duration of leave without pay (LWOP). The employee will stay in an "Active" status in Oracle.

In TCP enter the 'Daily Hours' per day through the duration for leave for FAMLI, and if applicable, FML. Total hours throughout the duration are provided as reference. Additional guidance can be found on the HR website.

The employee has elected to "top off" FAMLI partial income benefits with their accrued sick and/or annual leave. Enter leave in TCP to the extent they have available accruals.
