

Navigating the tax system can often prove to be a challenge, and requires a keen understanding of the various intricacies involved. It is not uncommon for individuals to experience confusion and uncertainty when attempting to comply with tax regulations. CSU would like to connect employees with free tax preparation assistance available in the community. See below for details.

On-Campus: Free tax preparation and tax return filing assistance is available by qualified volunteers from the IRS's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program. This opportunity is hosted at CSU on Saturdays from February 3rd to April 6th (except March 9th and 16th). The site will be open from 10:00 am – 2:00 pm at Rockwell Hall. For more information, please visit VITA tax preparation.

Northern Colorado: Make Change NOCO is a free tax return preparation organization run by local IRS Certified Volunteers. They offer services on different days of the week at various locations around Fort Collins and Windsor, to schedule your appointment and review requirements please visit Make Change NOCO.

Online: AARP Foundation Tax-Aide is a resource for those who might want to file their taxes online by using free software with the help of a volunteer. To review guidelines and requirements please visit AARP Foundation Tax-Aide.
